Scott L Ingram, BS, Director of Client Services, Tilson. He is certified as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) through the Human Resources Certification Institute as well as being a Certified Professional (SHRM- CP) through the Society for Human Resources Management. Scott first joined Tilson in May 2014 as an Account Manager. He has since been elevated to the Team Lead of the Account Managers and most recently to the Director of Client Services in November 2015. Scott has almost 20 years of experience working in the Human Resources arena from both a direct sales and account management perspective. He has worked with clients ranging from 1-10,000+ employees. His direct involvement in human resources started back in 1997 with ADP. Prior to coming on board with Tilson, Scott held business development and management roles with Servant HR and WorkSmart Systems, as well as managing his own construction business. Scott has actively pursued licensing and training to consistently advance his HR knowledge, as well as, being a licensed insurance professional in the State of Indiana.

Educational Objectives:

- Define what constitutes a “Hostile Work Environment”
- List ways to handle harassment in the workplace
- List steps to help minimize employers risk in these situations

Patsy Poehler, RN, is Executive Director Quality/Regulatory Resources, Visionary Enterprises, Inc., Indiana & Michigan. A long time supporter of the IFASC, Patsy is not new to the ASC community. She was well received by conference attendees in 2012 and 2015 when she shared her knowledge & expertise with the group on Life Safety (LS) issues. We are pleased to have Ms. Poehler with us again to review the most commonly cited standards, share the Life Safety Tool with tips as to how the user-friendly checklist can be adapted to your facility depending on size and staff resources and to establish a frequency for audits to maintain life safety compliance.

Educational Objectives:

- Define “Life Safety” and why we have LS compliance guidelines.
- List commonly cited standards during Life Safety surveys.
- Interpret a Life Safety Checklist used to audit and maintain LS Compliance

Kara Marshall Newbury, JD, serves as regulatory counsel for the Ambulatory Surgery Center Association (ASCA) and spearheads ASCA's federal regulatory efforts. Prior to this role, Kara coordinated state legislative, regulatory and public affairs for the association. Before joining ASCA, Ms. Newbury served as the assistant director, state government affairs at the National Association of Professional Employer Organizations and staff attorney and director of government relations for the Community Financial Services Association. She began her career working for the Ohio Senate, and has over sixteen years of state and federal government experience. Kara received her undergraduate and law degree from The Ohio State University. Ms. Newbury brings the latest information on how recent changes to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) Conditions for Coverage and interpretive guidelines could impact your daily operations. Kara will also review quality reporting program requirements.

Educational Objectives:

- List current CMS payment policies that may impact your ASC
- List recent federal regulatory changes that may impact your ASC's CMS survey
- List ASC quality reporting requirements and recent changes.

Troy Jester, BS, has dedicated most of his life to assisting others, with over 25 years in the fire service and over 21 years in workplace safety. Troy retired from the fire service with 20 years at the Auburn Fire Department and 21 years with Parkview Health. Jester is now utilizing his skills, knowledge and experience leading Vantage Point Consulting as President.

Vantage Point Consulting specializes in emergency preparedness training and exercise. Vantage Point Consulting's mission is to assist clients achieve a clear perspective of their current state emergency management and preparedness needs so they can respond to emerging events. Troy is a certified OSHA instructor, Associate Safety Professional and holds many other certificates within safety and emergency preparedness. Jester's presentation will address Appendices 3 and 4 of the IFASC Member Emergency Toolkit.

Educational Objectives:

- Design an emergency preparedness exercise for the ASC.
- Outline how to develop exercise objectives
- Identify the tools to use to effectively evaluate an emergency preparedness exercise.
